

FiberOptic.com Hosts Three-Day BICSI Conference at TEK Park

Breinigsville, Pennsylvania-February, 2007- FiberOptic.com, a tenant of TEK Park and a participant in the KU Innovation Center, hosted the Northeast Regional meeting of BICSI, a national, professional telecommunications association, at TEK Park.

This three-day event drew hundreds of BICSI members and featured over 30 major telecom vendors. FiberOptic.com is the leading online provider of fiber optic products, distribution and training. Its clients include Fortune 500 companies, telecommunication companies, the military, installers and contractors.

The company has a world wide reach, including Iraq with Bechtel International, Nigeria, and throughout Latin America. FiberOptic.com has also worked with several government agencies with training, including the White House Communications Agency, the Department of Defense, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, the U.S. Senate Capitol Policy, and the United Nations.

###